

Roberto Bellachi

His name was Roberto Bellachi.
He was 30 years old and lived in Italy.

His parents were waiters in a small and dilapidated restaurant. Roberto used to be an accordion player in the restaurant and he earned a little change for his very poor family.

For 10 years, he dreamt about America to success in music so Roberto saved enough money to go there.

During his trip, he experienced a violent storm but also favorable winds.

After his trip he was very tired but with his accordion he passed the tests of Ellis Island.

We have lost track of Roberto Bellachi after he was cleared from Ellis Island.

Today we don't know where Roberto has ended up.

But he must have found a job in a bistro as a waiter in New York. And he may have found a music producer to perform. Roberto may have become very famous in America and he may have married a admirer. Maybe they had a child.

It's a success
Story !!
